

“NOTES FROM HOME” CROSS CANADA TOUR

SENDING GREETINGS TO CANADIANS SERVING IN AFGHANISTAN

“Notes from Home” is a memory book that is circulating across Canada to provide Canadian Forces’ members and others the opportunity to write small greetings to our Canadian soldiers and civilians serving abroad.

The project originated with Master Corporal Renay Groves, who is currently stationed in Ottawa. After having been approached regularly by Canadians expressing their support for the military, Master Corporal Groves came up with an idea of a memory book as a means for Canadians to write their personal notes of appreciation to Canadian Forces members serving overseas. The book has been signed by General Rick Hillier, the Chief of the Defence Staff, who wholeheartedly supports this venture.

Following a cross-Canada tour, Master Corporal Groves will take the “Notes from Home” collection to Afghanistan where Canadian soldiers will have an opportunity to read the comments. Eventually, the book will be returned to Canada and be placed in the Canadian War Museum in Ottawa.

LEGION